

PERSONAL.

E. E. Ellinwood is in Phoenix this week on legal business.

Mrs. E. M. Doe returned Tuesday from a trip to Los Angeles.

Mrs. J. C. Milligan left Wednesday for her home in Las Vegas.

J. A. Lamport and wife came in from Seligman on Wednesday.

John Dugan has gone to Bellemont to work for the Santa Fe Pacific.

Mrs. Lambert Declass and Mrs. Jennett Declass left Monday for Globe.

James Loy returned Monday from a trip to the Verde valley and Prescott.

F. W. Smith came in from Seligman on Monday and will remain several days.

Dr. D. J. Brannen and wife spent several days in Prescott during the week.

Mrs. Hull, mother of Mrs. George Zettler, came in from the east on Wednesday.

Chas. A. Clark returned Saturday from Phoenix where he has been during the winter.

James A. Pitts and W. H. Ashurst returned from the Grand Canyon Tuesday.

C. H. Schulz, chairman of the board of supervisors, is in from his sheep range this week.

William Pitts has charge of the gang of Santa Fe Pacific workmen at the cinder pit.

Dave Raudebaugh, who has been confined to his room with the La grippe, is able to be out.

E. G. Riggs, a former resident of Williams, was here Tuesday on his return from a trip to Skaguay.

Miss Laura Hoxworth returned Thursday morning from a three months' visit with relatives in Los Angeles.

O. P. Demuth, a cousin of J. A. Lamport, arrived last week from California, and will probably remain here.

R. P. McAuliffe and family returned from Phoenix this week. Mrs. McAuliffe is much improved in health.

Henry F. Ashurst, Geo. P. Winslow, Patrick Johnston and H. L. Nagiller, of Williams were in the hub Saturday.

The family of John F. Sherwood left last Tuesday for Flagstaff, where they will reside in the future.—St. Johns Herald.

S. S. Preston, the Willow Springs Indian trader and the capturer of Jim Parker, the train robber, was in town this week.

L. H. Tolfree, landlord of the New Bank Hotel, has been confined to his room with an attack of the la grippe this week.

C. N. Stark, local editor of the Williams News, spent several days here during the week in the interest of the News.

Capt. G. A. Cornish, of the regular army, has been promoted from Captain to Colonel. Capt. Cornish is a brother of A. T. Cornish of this place.

Rev. F. Dilly returned from a trip over the Santa Fe Pacific as far east as Manulito. He did not make the trip to St. Johns as he expected when he left here last week.

Mrs. John Powell of St. Marys, Kansas, joined her husband here on Thursday. Mrs. Powell is a sister of J. L. Byrnes, of the Arizona Lumber and Timber Co.'s hewn timber department.

Ladies' calling cards, in the correct styles, printed in the latest copper-plate script at this office.